

'Round The Rim

Basketball fever is running high all over Rockville Centre what with both South Side and St. Agnes winning the championships of their respective leagues as well as the marvelous record of the Junior High School basketball team. The youngsters who have played outstanding basketball in the Rockville Centre Boys Basketball League throughout this season and whose names you have read in this column may well be members of future school teams.

The Sophomore Division played their all star game Wednesday evening, March 8, at the Recreation Center. The list of all stars was given in last week's column. The team coached by Bert Swett and Gordon Hallerman defeated the John Gunning-Tim Sullivan team 39-32. Both teams played exceptionally well and the score seesawed back and forth for three quarters with the Swett men finally breaking away for the victory.

The Junior National Division ended its season with the teams standings as follows: DeLuxe Caterers coached by Mike Paturzo; Pathmark coached by Herb Levingston and Tim Murphy; The Sizzler coached by Dennis Gaskin and Fred Flowers; Ocean Foam coached by Harry Hochman and Alan Hochman; Wolf's Sport Shop coached by Lee Currin and Lee Currin, Jr.; Adelson's coached by Bill Miller and Jim Miller; Al's Deli coached by Phil Saltzberg and Gerald Murphy; Belwin Mills, coached by Ron Reyer; Benjamin Pontiac coached by Sid Schwarts, Ray Mullman and Neil Friedman; Baskin-Robbins coached by Ed Kilkelly.

Our thanks to the sponsors, the coaches and their assistants and to their Commissioner Joe Doyle for a wonderful season of basketball.
