

'Round The Rim

The Rockville Centre Boys Basketball League Executive Board, headed by President Vincent Santo, Vice President Fred Schuhmann, Vice President Kleinman, Secretary Mike Paturzo, Treasurer Irv Matloff, Commissioners Stan Bonner, Jim Murphy, Elliott Labiner, Hal Silverman and Fred Simons, wish all the sponsors of the teams in the League, the boys and their parents as well as the community which is so generous in their support of the program the very best for the New Year.

SOPHOMORE DIVISION

In a seesaw game which saw ties at the end of regulation time and at the end of the first overtime period, The Bagelry squeaked by Adelson's in the sudden death second overtime 28-26. Keven McCormack, who led the winners with 12 points, swished in an 18 footer for the victory. Terry Cantwell had 8 points for the bakers; while John Ahern had 15 and Dan Platt 8 for the losers. Dan Fenaughty and John Ahmuty did great work on the boards, getting the Bagelry five the ball in some tight spots.

It was Momentum 20 over Newmark & Lewis 13 in a game that was marked by tight defense by both teams. For Momentum, Kevin Cullinan scored 16; while Jimmy Wallick scored 7 for the losers.

George's pastry got off to a slow start in their game against Wolf's which ended with a final score 35-20 in their favor. For the winners, Brian Sullivan sparked the victory coupled with excellent defensive effort and good ball control.

Baskin Robbins romped off to a 33-12 win over Al's Deli with a good all-around team effort—for the winners, Leigh Weissman and Mike Fahey were top scorers.

JUNIOR AMERICAN DIVISION

Chamber of Commerce outlasted Guiding Light 39-34 in a game that saw the losers leading by one point at half time. The entire Chamber team contributed to the win both offensively and defensively.

Lions roared past Rotary 46-28 will all boys scoring. Jim Geyer and Fred Laupheimer led with 8 points each, while Walt Kelly scoring 11 points, tried hard in a losing cause.

JUNIOR NATIONAL DIVISION

—both teams played well on offense and defense.

Citibank coasted along to a 33-15 victory over Bankers Trust with Wayne Piasio the scoring standout with fine defensive support from Dan Horn. For the losers it was Tom Gough and Rich Weisbach.

In a game that saw Chemical Bank come from behind by 15 points to defeat a hard fighting County Federal 29-27, Dan Schwartz scored the winning basket with only 15 seconds left. For the winners, Jim Dinan and Ron Farkas aided their cause while Steve Lederman and Tom Reyer tried to reverse the tide.

SENIOR DIVISION

Palace of Wong continues to mow 'em down in the Senior Division this time downing Benjamin Pontiac 62-40. The game was fairly even at halftime and it could have gone either way, but Palace of Wong turned on the heat in the third quarter. Outstanding for the winners were Peter Stern, Steve Maskin and Tim Naughton with Tim Healey fighting valiantly for the losers.

Sizzler got off to a fast start against Canterbury in a game that ended with a score of 54-47. Canterbury came back from way behind scoring 19 points in the final quarter. For the winners Dave Holmes and Bob Gluck did an outstanding job while Bob McCormack and Kevin Pierce tried hard in a losing cause.

In a tight game that was nip and tuck all the way, Pathmark pulled out a victory over H.B. & Son 60-55. The difference was Jerry Smith with 26 points helped by 16 points from team mate Gerry Giosa. For H.B., it was Jeff Rosen and Jimmy Schuhmann with 16 and 15 points respectively.

A fine team effort with great precision shooting by Macken's entire squad saw them down a hard playing DeLuxe Caterer's

AG